

How has Early ACCESS helped your child and family?

Join the conversation!

Complete the family survey and review your child's outcomes as part of the Early ACCESS team.

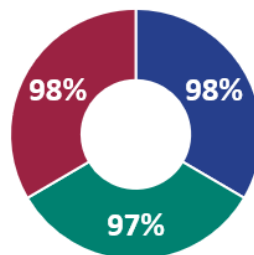

What we ask

Every year the Early ACCESS family survey asks if the program helped you to:

- Know your rights in Early ACCESS
- Communicate your child's needs
- Support your child's development and learning

Family Responses

- Know Rights
- Communicate Needs
- Develop and Learn

Comments shared in the family survey:

"We love Early ACCESS! We so appreciate the support and how they listen to our concerns and help our child meet the goals we've set together!"

"They helped my son so much with his talking and then helped transition him to preschool! And he's been doing so well!"

"Every question I've had has been answered and resources provided. I feel so blessed to have had the assistance. I had no idea the program existed and I am so glad we had the help."

"Our Early ACCESS team was a huge support during a very scary and challenging time in our child's life. They went above and beyond to make sure that we were supported and connected to the appropriate resources and specialists."

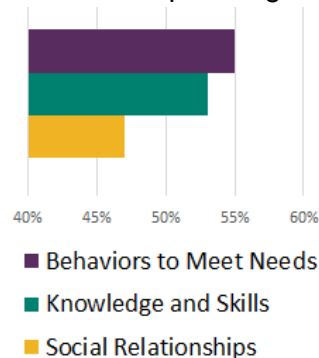

What we track

Early ACCESS also tracks and reports progress on three Early Childhood Outcomes:

- Social Relationships
- Knowledge and Skills
- Use of Appropriate Behaviors to Meet Needs
