

PARENT CAFÉ

Building Readers, Growing Futures

Reading is about much more than books. Children build literacy skills through conversations, storytelling, singing, play, and everyday experiences.

DATE:
AUGUST 24

TIME:
6:00 - 7:15 PM

LOCATION:
VIRTUAL
(Link provided after registration)

BY THE END OF THIS PARENT CAFÉ, PARTICIPANTS WILL:

- 1 Understand why literacy development begins long before children learn to read.
- 2 Identify age-appropriate ways to build literacy skills through everyday routines and interactions.
- 3 Explore the connection between literacy, brain development, school readiness, and lifelong success.
- 4 Create a plan for incorporating simple literacy-building activities into daily family life.
